

The risks

Immediate steps to protect your child.

- Speak to your child's school. They will help you decide what to do next.
- If you're really concerned your child is in immediate danger use our reporting handout to help you decide where to make a report. Don't delay. If your child hasn't committed a criminal offence you don't need to worry about them getting into trouble.
- Visit www.educateagainsthate.com to find more resources and information to help you talk to your child about the issues we have covered in this episode.
- Visit www.parentinfo.org to find lots of useful information about all of the risks and possible harms your child might come across online.
- Visit www.parentzone.org.uk to find lots of support and information about staying safer online.
- Take time to set up your family technology safely.
Visit www.internetmatters.org to find an easy guide to help you.
- If you have any concerns about your child's online safety more generally contact help@parentzone.org.uk