Dear parents,

Following yesterday's announcement from the Prime Minister, I am writing to assure parents that we will do everything we can today to gain clarity on what the school closure strategy will actually mean in practice for St George's and for Enfield schools. The announcement raised many questions but little detail, and I know that many parents will have important questions and concerns.

During the day, I will be working with school leaders to formulate a positive response and keep monitoring the solution that is being proposed for Enfield schools in general as a high degree of collaborative working will be necessary. We will be seeking clarification for reassurance for all.

It is right that we do all we can to support those who provide essential services for our society but we must do it in a workable and sustainable way. I will update parents, as I have daily, as soon as more information is available.

Yours Sincerely,

Mr P O'Rourke
Headteacher
